Fishing Lake Berryessa! Trolling at 40 to 60 foot depths will land you trout or salmon.
Troll a needle fish or pink Hoochies behind a flasher. The narrows towards the dam is the hot spot. Crappie are running again, mostly at night. Anglers are using minnows or jigs off the bottom. Coves or shorelines with brush or trees are the spots for crappie. Bass anglers are throwing plastics or crawlers on rocky points and landing nice size bass. The water temperature this morning was at 68 degrees. DINO

Reclamation Begins Boat Inspections at Lake Berryessa

Lake Berryessa staff, to help stop the spread of invasive Quagga and Zebra mussels, will be conducting boat and trailer inspections at boat launches around the lake beginning on Saturday, May 24, 2008. Education, public outreach, and inspections will continue throughout the season to prevent the spread of these invasive species. The Bureau of Reclamation and multiple Federal, State, and local agencies are urging boaters and watercraft users to help stop the spread of Quagga and Zebra mussels. The greatest threat to further spreading the mussel invasion to lakes, rivers, and other waters is the unintentional introduction by recreational boaters. Transferring a boat from infested water to uninfested water could spread the mussels. These mussels have infested some Nevada and California waters. Recently, Zebra mussels were found in Reclamation’s San Justo Reservoir in San Benito County, about 40 miles southeast of San Jose. This is the first population of this destructive invasive species to be found in Northern California waters.For additional information on the self-inspection process, please contact Lake Berryessa Natural Resources Specialist Melissa Brockman at 707-966-2111, extension 103. To learn more about these invasive species, please visit the Department of Fish and Game website at www.dfg.ca.gov/invasives/quaggamussel. A toll-free number, 866-440-9530, has been established for those seeking information or to report sightings of these mussels. The toll-free number is available Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Pacific Standard Time.Boaters can assist in “Not Moving a Mussel,” by downloading a self-inspection form and inspecting their own equipment. The form is available at: http://www.usbr.gov/mp/ccao/field_offices/lake_berryessa/nat_res_mgmt_act.html.

Latest news from Lake Berryessa and it's not good,

In a bizarre move, the Bureau of Reclamation on May 19, 2008 demanded that four major Lake Berryessa resorts essentially shut down immediately! The impact of this move will have serious negative impacts on visitors, resort employees, and the local business community. I wanted to provide the basic information for you to make your own judgments.

BOR Letter: "Based upon evaluation of the successful proposal and subsequent confirmation with the successful offeror, The Pensus Group LLC, Reclamation has determined that all permanent facilities in your Resort concession area must be removed by the end of the concession contract." See the full letter below.

This essentially ends the summer season at the lake before it even begins because all the contracts are set to expire this summer: Rancho Monticello Resort, June 15; Spanish Flat Resort, July 13; Berryessa Marina Resort, August 13; Putah Creek Resort, August 13.

The apparent reason for this action, after several weeks of negotiation with the Pensus Group, is money - many millions of dollars worth of it. The entry cost for a new company taking over the present resorts seems to be too high to make a profit if the present facilities have any value. But the present facilities clearly have value since even Reclamation's own appraisers documented a value of more than $11 million for Rancho Monticello, for example. See the appraisal document below.

Paying for the present facilities would require an incoming company (Pensus Group, in this case) to pay $11 million to the outgoing company (Rancho Monticello, in this case). Add in the Bureau of Reclamation's own appraised value of the 4 other resorts in the Pensus package and you're talking really big money - even before a new company invests in any new facilities. Concurrently, the present resort owners have an appeal before a federal judge asking that their own separate appraisals (significantly higher, by about $40 million, than the BOR appraisals) be recognized as valid.

So what's the easy way to solve this financial dilemma? Declare that the present facilities have no value and require the present owners to remove them at their own cost. And base your authority on Public Law 96-375. It seems that problems with the contract negotiations caused Reclamation to try this hardball approach, although there was no hint of it in Reclamation's glowing announcement of the selection of the new concession companies.

Released On: April 02, 2008 - Reclamation Announces the Selection of Three Proposals for New Concession Contracts at Lake Berryessa: Mr. Finnegan added, "Reclamation intends for recreation at Lake Berryessa to continue essentially uninterrupted, other than occasional temporary closures in various locations for developmental activities." Reclamation anticipates that the new contracts will be signed within the next few months."

1ST Drowning this year at Lake Berryessa

Friday May 23rd 2008

Swimming with friends.

Swimmers found themselves in trouble when they tried to swim from the shores of Lake Berryessa to Island of rocks. The rock iland comes creeping up as the water line goes down. The swim was about 150 feet from the shoreline. The wind was blowing about 20 miles per hour, causing white caps. Swimming in those conditions was not a good thing to do. The swimmers got exhausted very fast.

All five of them were having trouble in the water. “One of the girls went down. But she was grabbed by one of the men and they made it to the rocks. Another one of the men was really struggling, but he also was able to make it,” One of the guys said, Cabab was behind all of them but they could not find him. “He went down and, according to the family & friends he did not resurface.

Two of the survivors were rescued off the rocks by the sheriff’s patrol boat.

The other two were on shore when lake deputies arrived. There were 2 guys up the hill when they heard & then saw people in the water yelling for help! They helped 1girl & 1 guy back to shore.

There were five people altogether swimming & one they could not find, Jovencio Cabab who was found the day after, needles to say he did not survive.

The End of 50 Years at Lake Berryessa

My father put a trailer in Spanish Flat Resort back in 1969 which our family enjoyed for numbers of years. I was just 5 years old. We came up almost every weekend. We swam, caught Blue Gills with dough, went boating and had a great time.

Five years ago, I bought a place on the water at Spanish Flat Resort. I was now an adult who came up to the lake almost every weekend even in the winter, not only to be at the lake but to be with our new found friends.

Memorial Weekend 2008

the last weekend at Spanish Flat Resort. Like many of our friends we took the whole week off from work. Every single neighbor in Pirates Cove was here with their families & friends. The beach in front of my place was full of boats, jet skis, people sitting in their lawn chairs, umbrellas, people swimming & having a great time! Pirates Cove was Totally happening

As the day went on, a group of us caravanned by boat to the bridge. We tied up near the booms that were put up last year. The ride past Rancho Monticello Resort was an ominous site & reminder that our Resort Spanish Flat was also being taken down, demolished. The destruction of people's lives, jobs, family vacation homes & dreams. A giant tornado loomed on the Lakes Horizon, as it was headed for Us at Spanish Flat Resort.

I knew that time had run out & it's over, as I was woken to the sounds of the Giant Excavator outside my bedroom. We called it the Yellow Grim Reaper. After a few hours the site next to me was wiped out clean and hauled away & knowing I was next.. Just like that. Over Done Gone!!!!!!

It hit me like a ton of bricks. I needed to sign a contract to have my beautiful place destroyed. No more waiting for the Judge's ruling. The Government Won! They got rid of Us Permittees.

They are shutting down the Resort & not even Campers will be allowed after July 13th if not before?.

Everyone had something to say as they watched each others site being demolished, The Chads, Steve, Joe, Dino, Mike & Butch. Some had been here since 1960. All had shared special times together here.

Me personally, I held in My emotions all week until I thought about what I was going to write for this article. As I reflected on the week, The Years, My friends & the destruction, I started to cry for the first time. It was the end of a 50 Year Era at Lake Berryessa and it will never be the same..... Q: Is it common for 50+ year olds to have problems with short term memory storage?

A: Storing memory is not a problem, retrieving it is a problem.

Q: As people age, do they sleep more soundly?

A: Yes, but usually in the afternoon.

Lake Berryessa in limbo!!

The closures stem from a June 2006 decision by the Bureau ordering the removal of approximately 1,300 privately owned trailers from the seven lakeside resorts. All of the contracts to run the resorts, 50-year deals between the federal government and the concessionaires that expire over the next several months were put up for bid.

In April, federal authorities awarded Arizona-based Pensus Group the contracts to operate five concessions at the lakeshore. But as of this week, Pensus hasn't signed any contracts, leaving many resort owners wondering when, or if, new facilities will open.

Not only is the bureau in limbo, so is the public.

Bureau of Reclamation officials are confident the deal with Pensus will be struck soon, and the lake will begin to take on new life with updated facilities and operations.

"We're working very hard with Pensus to get a contract signed as soon as possible," said Pete Lucero, acting public affairs officer for the Bureau of Reclamation in the mid-Pacific region. But Lucero was not optimistic about completing one by June 15

"The next (deadline) is July 13th Spanish Flat Resort. "We are hoping to hit that date to have a contract in place. We are trying to make this as smooth a transition as possible, but there are a lot of issues to deal with in a contract like this."

Lucero said the Bureau sees a "bright future" for the lake, with a wider range of overnight amenities, access to the lakeshore and recreational opportunities.

Jeremy Crotts, vice president with the Pensus Group in Arizona, said, "We are currently in negotiations with the BOR on that project and as a result are unable to comment on anything. We're hoping to have a contract settled as soon as possible."

Uncertainty at the shore

While the timing of the deal is uncertain, one thing is clear. Between the time when each resort closes and the new vendor takes over, "There will be no recreation within those concession areas," said Lucero. "If we don't have a contract in place there will be no one to operate the resorts."

ANGEL - KNOW THE SYMPTOMS.....

Thank goodness there's a name for this disorder.

Somehow I feel better even though I have it!

Recently, I was diagnosed with A.A.A.D.D. - Age Activated Attention Deficit Disorder.

This is how it manifests:

I decide to water my garden.

As I turn on the hose in the driveway, I look over at my car and decide it needs washing. As I start toward the garage, I notice mail on the porch table that I brought up from the mail box earlier.

I decide to go through the mail before I wash the car.

I lay my car keys on the table, put the junk mail in the garbage can under the table, and notice that the can is full.

So, I decide to put the bills back on the table and take out the garbage first. But then I think, since I'm going to be near the mailbox when I take out the garbage anyway, I may as well pay the bills first. I take my check book off the table, and see that there is only one check left. My extra checks are in my desk in the study, so I go inside the house to my desk where I find t he can of Pepsi I'd been drinking. I'm going to look for my checks, but first I need to push the Pepsi aside so that I don't accidentally knock it over. The Pepsi is getting warm, and I decide to put it in the refrigerator to keep it cold. As I head toward the kitchen with the Pepsi, a vase of flowers on the counter catches my eye--they need water. I put the Pepsi on the counter and discover my reading glasses that I've been searching for all morning.I decide I better put them back on my desk, but first I'm going to water the flowers. I set the glasses back down on the counter, fill a container with water and suddenly spot the TV remote.

Someone left it on the kitchen table. I realize that tonight when we go to watch TV, I'll be looking for the remote, but I won't remember that it's on the kitchen table, so I decide to put it back in the den where it belongs, but first I'll water the flowers. I pour some water in the flowers, but quite a bit of it spills on the floor. So, I set the remote back on the table, get some towels and wipe up the spill. Then, I head down the hall trying to remember what I was planning to do. . At the end of the day: the car isn't washed, the bill s aren 't paid, there is a warm can of Pepsi sitting on the counter, the flowers don't have enough water, there is still only 1 check in my check book. I can't find the remote. I can't find my glasses, and I don't remember what I did with the car keys.Then, when I try to figure out why nothing got done today, I'm really baffled because I know I was busy all damn day, and I'm really tired. I realize this is a serious problem, and I'll try to get some help for it, but firs t I'll check my e-mail....Do me a favor.Forward this message to everyone you know, because I don't remember who I've sent it to.Don't laugh –

if this isn't you yet, your day is coming!!
