Fishing With Dino

The water temp is at 74 degrees 6 feet from the surface.

Trolling with down riggers at the 60 to 90 foot depths for Trout and Salmon. Use flashers and needlefish lures and you will limit out!

Catfishing has improved. Use livers or hot dogs off the bottom. An angler brought in an 11.0 lb cat this week, used a hot dog for bait.

Crappie are hitting jigs in evening hours. Fish near docks or coves with trees or brush. Bass are slow, but use plastics in rocky coves around the lake.

Another Blonde moment?

Two blonde girls were working for the city public works department. One would dig a hole and the other would follow behind her and fill the hole in. They worked up one side of the street, then down the other, then moved on to the next street, working furiously all day without rest, one girl digging a hole, the other girl filling it in again.

An onlooker was amazed at their hard work, but couldn't understand what they were doing. So he asked the hole digger, "I'm impressed by the effort you two are putting in to your work, but I don't get it -- why do you dig a hole, only to have your partner follow behind and fill it up again?"

The hole digger wiped her brow and sighed, "Well, I suppose it probably looks odd because we're normally a three-person team. But today the girl who plants the trees called in sick."

Golf course coming to Pope Valley

An application for a use permit has been filed for a private 18-hole golf course in Pope Valley in a portion of what used to be Juliana Vineyards. Golf courses are permitted in agricultural areas. Existing parcels around the golf course are expected to be developed into private estates that will be able to use the golf course. No hotel or other development is planned. The project doesn't expand the number of estate home sites already in place.

Fishing With Sid

On Friday afternoon a week ago I took Peter and his three sons, Andrew (age 11), Stephen and Thomas (ages 7) - no you are not seeing double they are twins - to teach them how to catch fish. Peter told me they had been out numerous times but had never caught any fish. They had been out this morning for a few hours with no luck at all.

Andrew was able to cast and retrieve which helped quite a bit. I teach most kids how to cast from the dock before we go out. Each child brought in his own fish when we went to my favorite cove. It took a little while for them to figure out what was a fish and what was grass but they got the hang of it. It turned out to be a very successful day as you can see by the photo. These boys will definitely turn out to be fishermen.

All and all it was a great fishing weekend. 'til next week.....good fishing!!!!!! www.fishingconnection.net. If you have any fishing stories you would like to share please email me at bestguide@hotmail.com or call me at 650-583-3333.

The Jet Kayak - Coming Soon to Lake Berryessa?

Heading straight for a rock wall along New Zealand's Waimakariri River Gorge wouldn't normally faze Shaun Baker. But this was a new experience even for the world-record-holding waterfall jumper—this time his kayak had an engine in it, skipping him like a stone at more than 30 mph. Finally he backed off the throttle just enough to steer himself parallel to the wall and avert disaster, before gunning it back up to full speed.

A few years ago, Baker grew bored with performing crazy feats in standard kayaks, so he and a few friends decided to change the craft itself by adding some extra power. They picked the only engine that would fit in a six-foot-long freestyle kayak: a small, flat, 45-horsepower model developed by a company that makes motorized surfboards. Engineer Andy Selway cut a hole in the back of the kayak, built a frame, and rigged the engine to turn a Yamaha jet ski's pump and impeller, which draw in and expel water. Since the jet-ski parts were designed to handle 75 horses, he machined them down so they would better match the motor.

Once the kayak was complete, Baker worked to learn to control it, which ultimately saved his hide. For now, Baker controls velocity with a paddle-mounted finger throttle modified from a quad bike, but he'd like to install a foot-pedal-based system. Baker had to learn to use a paddle blade to control his heading at high speeds. If he digs in too deep or leans too far to one side, he's underwater. After his close call in New Zealand, he went on to set a kayak world speed record of 35 mph. Now he's looking for new adrenaline-drenched challenges. Aerial backflips, anyone?

GREAT IDEA

Put your car keys beside your bed at night. If you hear a noise outside your home or someone trying to get in your house, just press the panic button for your car. The alarm will be set off and the horn will continue to sound until either you turn it off or the car battery dies.

This tip came from a neighborhood watch coordinator.

Next time you come home for the night and you start to put your keys away, think of this. It's a security alarm system that you probably already have and requires no installation. Test it. It will go off from most everywhere inside your house and will keep honking until your battery runs down or until you reset it with the button on the key fob chain. It works if you park in your driveway or garage.

If your car alarm goes off when someone is trying to break into your house, odds are the burglar or rapist won't stick a round..... After a few seconds all the neighbors will be looking out their windows to see who is out there and sure enough, the criminal won't want that. And, remember to carry your keys while walking to your car in a parking lot. The alarm can work the same way there....Would also be useful for any emergency, such as a heart attack, where you can't reach a phone.

Grilled Asparagus with Roasted Garlic Toast and Balsamic Vinaigrette

- 1 medium head garlic, unpeeled
- 5 tbs. extra virgin olive oil, divided
- salt and pepper to taste
- 2 tablespoons minced shallot
- 1 1/2 teaspoons balsamic vinegar
- 1/2 teaspoon red wine vinegar
- 1 1/2 lbs. thick stemmed asparagus
- 4 slices sourdough bread
- Preheat oven to 350 ,Coat the head of garlic with 1 tablespoon olive oil, salt, and pepper. Place on a baking sheet, and roast 45 minutes in the preheated oven, or B.B.Q. until golden brown. Once the garlic is roasted, cut the head in half horizontally, exposing all the cloves. Squeeze both halves into a bowl, discarding any skin. Whisk in 2 tablespoons of olive oil, salt, and pepper. Set aside. While the garlic is roasting, place the minced shallot in a bowl with the balsamic and red wine vinegars for about 30 minutes to let the flavors blend. Whisk in remaining olive oil, and season with salt and pepper. Place asparagus spears in the mixture until ready to grill.

1. Preheat grill for medium-high heat.
2. Place asparagus in a large skillet or directly on the grill. Grill the asparagus, turning over once, until tender, about 10 minutes. While asparagus is grilling, spread the roasted garlic mixture on the bread. Grill bread until toasted. Arrange the bread and asparagus on a plate, and drizzle with the remaining shallot and vinegar mixture.
3. Place asparagus in a large skillet or directly on the grill. Grill the asparagus, turning over once, until tender, about 10 minutes. While asparagus is grilling, spread the roasted garlic mixture on the bread. Grill bread until toasted. Arrange the bread and asparagus on a plate, and drizzle with the remaining shallot and vinegar mixture.

I am passing this on to you because it definitely works, and we could all use a little more calmness in our lives. By following simple advice heard on the Dr. Phil show, you too can find inner peace. Dr Phil proclaimed, "The way to achieve inner peace is to finish all the things you have started and have never finished." So, I looked around my house to see all the things I started and hadn't finished, and before leaving the house this morning, I finished off a bottle of Merlot, a bottle of Zinfandel, a bottle of Bailey's Irish Cream, a bottle of Vodka, a package of Oreos, the remainder of my old Prozac prescription, the rest of the cheesecake, some Doritos and a box of chocolates. You have no idea how good I feel.

Quail Ridge Fire

A small fire was reported at approximately 7:45 A.M. on Saturday, July 7, under the power tower at the point of Quail Ridge that juts into the Narrows near Pleasure Cove Resort. A helicopter was soon on scene and doused the fire which was fully extinguished by 9 A.M.

Paula Barton, visiting from Sweden, took some fantastic photos of the fire fighting helicopter dropping water around the tower and under the power lines. Tom Oetjen, also got someshots from up on the hill. See the photo album at www.LakeBerryessaNews.com. Thanks to the brave and skilled pilots keeping us safe!

Ken Pridmore of the Spanish Flat CDF Station reported that fire-fighters on scene believe the fire was caused by the unfortunate death of an osprey. Osprey nesting platforms are installed on some power towers because the osprey will nest there anyway. The platforms are intended to entice the osprey to nest away from the power lines themselves. Sadly it appears that an osprey was able to reach a high power element and was electrocuted with enough energy to cause it to burn. When it landed in the grass it caused the grass to catch fire. Feathers were discovered on the ground and no other evidence of a different cause was found.

Ed Stadelhofer, retired long-time Lake Berryessa CDF Chief, said that several years ago there were a number of fires in the Sky Valley area which is south of Hiddenbrook Golf Club that were caused by bald eagles attempting to land on the power line cross arms. Their wingspan was so large they would short themselves out across two lines and fall to the ground aflame. He said it was sad to see those beautiful birds end up like that.

The Bureau of Reclamation had planned to reopen its remodeled Visitor Center before now. However, the new displays inside have not yet been completed. They had also hoped to refurbish some of the signs around the lake, especially the informational sign on the side of of Knoxville Road near the Capell launch ramp. Unfortunately that task has been moved to the 2008 budget period.

One item that is still on the schedule, but without a firm date, is the planned closure of the Big Island Lagoon area to motorized watercraft. Only non-motorized watercraft and those powered by electric motors will be permitted to use the area. For the majority of lake users this is one of the most unpopular and unjustified decisions the BOR has ever made. Although a final date for the closure has not been set it is scheduled for “after the end of this recreation season”.

The following Letter to the Editor is a poignant reminder of why the majority of local residents and lake users believe the decision is wrong.

*****

On Friday, July 6, I, my wife and my sister decided to visit the Big Island area to go back and enjoy the safety, peace, and tranquility of this area as we have for many years. Upon entering the 5 MPH zone, we observed a one person kayak, with a man fully-dressed with long sleeve shirt and a large brim hat for shade, enjoying paddling around. We found a nice area to beach our motorized patio boat so we could enjoy a safe swim out of the traffic of the main body of Lake Berryessa. While motoring around we counted between 35 to 40 motorized boats in the Big Island area - a mixture of three large house boats, many patio boats, ski boats, and pleasure boats. While we there a ski boat pulled up next to us, dropped an anchor off the rear, and let the boat touch the shore. The occupants of the boat were a man in his 30’s, and two small boys, one 3 years old and the other 5 years old. There was a friendly hello exchange between we seniors, 64, 72, and 75 years old, the man, and his young boys. The man proceeded to put his young boys on the shore where they played in the water with toy boats, while he sat back in his boat relaxing, and not worried for the safety of his children.

During our discussion with him he confirmed that he had been coming to this area for about seven years, and even after the boys were born, he felt this was a very safe place for his children to be at Lake Berryessa. Now as we seniors were floating around we noticed deer laying in areas of shade from the heat of the day, Canadian geese swimming around, and overhead osprey searching for a meal. Looking on the other shores we observed teenagers, young and old playing, and enjoying floatation mattress. The area was brimming with boats going slowly by with friendly waves from the occupants, all obeying the rules of the waters, and the rights of others.

The question that passed through our minds was here we are senior citizens, little children, teenagers, adults, and wildlife all living and enjoying the peace, and tranquility of the Big Island of Lake Berryessa. The reason we were there was because we had motorized boats to transport our family to the Big Island safely.

This Big Island area in the BOR record of decision has been chosen by BOR decision makers to be a NON-MOTORIZED ZONE. The seniors, children, and adult citizens that depend on motorized boats to bring them to this tranquil area will no longer be welcome - the very ones that were present today. The big question we ask of the BOR is, “WHY do you choose to SEGREGATE rather than to UNITE. Is it because you have NO young children in your present family life or no seniors as part of your life to consider what your plans will do, and how they will affect others? I wonder if you have also not considered the HANDICAPPED? If Abraham Lincoln could look down and see how the ROD will segregate our people rather than to unite them, he would have to be ashamed of the years of progress we have made...

The Bureau Of Reclamation is an agency hired by the citizens, taxpayers, to take care of the Federal Property of the United States of America. But it was not given the power by the people to take away their Constitutional RIGHTS. This is The UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and not The SEGREGATED STATES OF AMERICA. I ask that the BOR undo this UNJUST PLAN to Separate our PEOPLE.

Don Lombardi Sr.

Spreading the word about Berryessa's businesses

By JENNIFER HUFFMAN, Register Business Writer, Saturday, July 07, 2007

Billing their community as the “Backroads of Napa,” a group of Lake Berryessa business people has banded together in a new effort to promote lake tourism and business.

The Lake Berryessa Chamber of Commerce, recently resurrected, has produced the first printed marketing brochure on the area in years. The glossy, four-color brochure includes maps, graphics and photography, and was conceived, printed and distributed by the chamber.

“Our goal is to let people know what a great place this is,” said chamber President Peter Kilkus. Last year’s Bureau of Reclamation decision to seek removal of roughly 1,300 mobile homes from seven lakeside resorts leaves the area in a state of flux. But while some lake users are suing to stop the Bureau and others are preparing for change, the chamber’s on the offensive.

“It was time to pull together and promote new businesses,” said Kilkus. “It’s our businesses responsibility to make the best of the situation. You can’t sit around complaining.” With local advertisers funding the brochure production, the chamber printed 20,000 copies to be distributed at the Napa Valley Convention & Visitors Bureau, throughout Napa Valley, neighboring counties and as far as the San Francisco Airport.

The piece features a map with local merchants clearly marked, as well as highlights of a Lake Berryessa visit, including water sports, wildlife, wineries, lodging, dining and day-use facilities. A professionally-designed piece promoting the area seems so obvious, it raises the question of why it hadn’t been produced before. “Of course it’s something you would expect to see,” said Kilkus, who is also a local businessman. “It’s a natural — if you have a sustainable, localized business. But we are 2,000 people over 200 square miles,” he noted.

Berryessa residents and designers Susan Heyden and husband Gary Howes created the piece.

“We’re just trying to put a positive, cohesive face on the area,” said Heyden. “People have various points of view about the area, and we think it’s a lovely place for family recreation and we would like the rest of Napa and visitors to know we’re here and come visit us,” said Heyden.

Berryessa restaurant Cucina Italiana is one paid advertiser. Owner Sharyn Simmons feels the area’s been “left off the map for outsiders who may not have known about our fabulous community.”

“We wanted to suggest entertainment and recreational ideas to those that think you can only ‘do the lake’ by boat — like our wineries, trails, and of course restaurants,” said Simmons.

Vinni Bubak, with Intero Real Estate Services, also paid for an ad in the brochure. She’d like to see the handout in hotel display racks all over the Bay Area. “People are still looking for real estate in Lake Berryessa,” noted Bubak, especially those impacted by resort leases and who still want to visit or live at the lake.

“I thought it would be a great tool to promote myself and my listings,” which include first, second and vacation homes, she said.

Joe Quist owns Wet Dawg Watersports at the lake. He said the brochure was overdue. “I really am excited we have it,” said Quist. “So many tourists only visit the Highway 29 corridor and they really miss out on this part of the county.

“We wanted to incorporate what we’re doing with their schedule of wine tasting and touring,” said Quist. “We’re only 35 minutes from Napa, but it seems like we might as well be 100 miles away, because people don’t think about the lake. Hopefully it reaches both visitors and people who live in the area. We just want to get people up here.”

Skinny Dipping

An elderly man in Louisiana had owned a large farm for several years. He had a large pond in the back. It was properly shaped for swimming, so he fixed it up nice... picnic tables, horseshoe pits, and some apple and peach trees.

One evening the old farmer decided to go down to the pond, as he hadn’t been there for a while, and look it over. He grabbed a five-gallon bucket to bring back some fruit. As he neared the pond, he heard voices shouting and laughing with glee. As he came closer, he saw it was a bunch of young women skinny-dipping in his pond.

He made the women aware of his presence and they all went to the deep end. One of the women shouted to him, "We're not coming out until you leave!"

The old man frowned, "I didn't come down here to watch you ladies swim naked or make you get out of the pond naked."

Holding the bucket up he said, "I'm here to feed the alligator."

Some old men can still think fast.

*****

When Dan found out he was going to inherit a fortune when his sickly father died, he decided he needed a woman to enjoy it with. So, one evening he went to a singles bar where he spotted the most beautiful woman he had ever seen. Her natural beauty took his breath away.

"I may look like just an ordinary man," he said as he walked up to her, "but in just a week or two, my father will die, and I'll inherit 20 million dollars."

Impressed, the woman went home with him that evening and, three days later, she became his stepmother.

Women are so much smarter than men.

Fishing With Sid

The weather has been very warm at the lake for the past couple of weeks and this makes the fish act different. For example, Tony and his father Mike went out with me last Friday at noon. Tony was throwing topwater and landed this 3lb bass (see picture) and Mike at the end of the day landed this 17 lb catfish on the surface.

In between the fishing was sporadic. I went out that evening to my favorite cove, where the water is disappearing rapidly, and topwater was what worked for me.

The following day we landed alot of catfish and alot of carp. Fishing with my friend Willie one of his students caught two carp in a few minutes time on very light equipment. Those who never tried fishing for carp before should try it at least once. They put up quite a fight on light tackle.

A week ago my neighbor's daughter at the dock caught this large crappie (almost 3lbs see photo). A couple of years ago this young girl caught her first carp with me and now she loves to fish and does very well. Abe's girlfriend caught her first catfish at night using hotdogs. Good job!!!! These young ladies on the right wouldn't touch the fish but didn't mind holding the net to show their catch. All in all it was pretty productive and as always alot of fun. 'til next week.....good fishing!!!

Beware New Virus - W.O.R.K.

There is a dangerous virus being passed around electronically, orally, and by hand. This virus is called Worm-Overload-Recreational-Killer (WORK). If you receive WORK from any of your colleagues, your boss, or anyone else via any means DO NOT TOUCH IT.

This virus will wipe out your private life completely. If you should come into contact with WORK, put your jacket on and take two good friends to the nearest grocery store. Purchase the antidote known as:

Work-Isolating-Neutralizer-Extract (WINE) or Bothersome-Employer-Elimination-Rebooter (BEER)

Take the antidote repeatedly until WORK has been completely eliminated from your system. You should forward this warning to 5 friends. If you do not have 5 friends, you have already been infected and WORK is controlling your life.

The American Beer Institute and Miles Per Gallon

A 2006 study by Texas A&M University found that the average American walks about 900 miles per year.

Another study by the American Beer Institute found that Americans drink an average of 22 gallons of beer a year.

That means, on average, Americans get approximately 41 miles per gallon. Not bad!

ANGEL IN MY SKY

I once, long ago, saw an angel in my sky.
An angel that my life has now been touched by.

She caught my eye with loving stare.
I looked into hers, such a beautiful glare.
She enters my path when danger is near,
To show me a new route away from all fear.
With her wings of white and her halo of blue.
Im not alone with her, she watches over you too.

She is the our angel guardian, angel of the city.

For eyes too blind to see, i do so pity.
She's come from the sky, yet she never touches the ground.

She can sing to your heart without making a sound.

The angel delivers our messages of prayer to the king.

His love and grace back to you, is what she will bring.

And by the way, for what it's worth,
You can be sure she has been with us all since birth.

My little message to my fellow mankind.
Keep her by your side, don't ever leave her behind.

ANGEL

Hawaiian Fish with Pineapple

2 (4 ounce) mahi mahi fillets

2 cups lemon juice

dried thyme to taste

dried basil to taste

1 (8 ounce) can pineapple chunks, drained

1/2 cup milk

DIRECTIONS

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C). Line a baking pan with aluminum foil.

Arrange the mahi mahi fillets in the prepared baking pan. Pour lemon juice over the fillets, and sprinkle with thyme and basil. Top each fillet with pineapple.

Pour milk into the pan, not directly on the fish.

Bake 25 minutes in the preheated oven, or until fish flakes easily with a fork.

Brief Living Will by Maxine!!

I, Maxine, being of sound mind and body, do not wish to be kept alive indefinitely by artificial means.

Under no circumstances should my fate be put in the hands of pinhead politicians who couldn't pass ninth-grade biology if their lives depended on it, or lawyers / doctors interested in simply running up the bills. If a reasonable amount of time passes and I fail to ask for at least one of the following:

Chocolate Shake

Hamburger with onions French Fries

Margarita Chocolate Pizza Chocolate

Ice cream Cafe Latte Chocolate

Sex

It should be presumed that I won't ever get better.
When such a determination is reached, I hereby instruct my appointed person and attending physicians to pull the plug, reel in the tubes, and turn out the lights -

"The party's over!!!"
